ANNUAL SCM CAMP 2024

The Student Christian Movement (SCM) of St. John's College, Jaffna, organized the Annual SCM Camp 2024, held on August 21-22, 2024, at the St. John's College premises. This one-night camp, designed for students, centered around the theme "Walking with God" and provided participants with an opportunity to engage in various spiritual, educational, and fellowship activities, encouraging deeper connections with their faith and each other. The camp offered a chance for students to reflect, grow spiritually, and build lasting relationships in a supportive Christian environment.

The camp was filled with a variety of enriching activities, including praise and worship sessions, engaging Bible study discussions, and interactive games that fostered teamwork and fun. A highlight of the evening was the campfire, where students gathered for fellowship, reflection, and shared experiences. Each activity was designed to strengthen participants' faith and create a memorable and spiritually uplifting experience. The camp featured three powerful and transformative sessions.

The first session, led by Rev. Fr. Jegankumar Coonghe, OMI, inspired attendees with the profound theme of "Journeying with Jesus Christ," offering deep insights into walking in the footsteps of the Savior. In the second session, renowned consultant and counselor Ms. Ranjit Paul captivated participants with her wisdom on "Decision Making," providing invaluable tools for making life-changing choices grounded in faith. The final session, led by the distinguished Rev. S. Thevaganathan, Chairperson of the CACM, challenged and uplifted the participants as they explored "The Qualities of Discipleship," leaving them equipped and empowered to embrace their Christian calling with renewed passion and commitment. These sessions made the camp an unforgettable and life-altering experience. The vibrant praise and worship sessions, as well as the exciting games and memorable campfire, were meticulously organized by the dedicated members of the Student Christian Movement (SCM).

Their enthusiasm and commitment ensured that each of these activities created a joyful and spiritually enriching atmosphere, bringing participants closer together and fostering a sense of unity and fellowship throughout the camp. The SCM members' hard work and passion made these moments some of the most unforgettable highlights of the event. The campfire was a particularly memorable event, showcasing the incredible talents of the students and filling the night with joy and laughter. It was a lively and entertaining gathering where students displayed their creativity and skills, making the night both fun and unforgettable. This moment of warmth around the fire deepened bonds and created lasting memories for everyone involved, bringing the camp to a truly spectacular close.

The camp concluded with a closing session led by the Chaplain, Rev. S. S. Jebachelvan, and Rev. V. Daniel Jeyaruban, offering reflections and spiritual guidance to end the event on a high note. Students also had the opportunity to share their personal experiences from the camp, providing a meaningful space for reflection and gratitude. Following these remarks, Mr. V. S. B. Thuseetharan, the Principal of St. John's College, offered his closing remarks, acknowledging the success of the camp. The event wrapped up with the distribution of certificates, a token of appreciation and recognition for the participants' involvement and enthusiasm.
